Creating Landscapes for Families

Fall 2013...

in the Community at the Unitarian Universalist Church

Bringing families together in the community to focus on positive possibilities.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Families share a powerful connection with their community. To foster this connection, we believe:

- Participation in shared experiences helps people to feel understood and valued. A sense of belonging is crucial to a person's well-being.
- Families and community members deserve the opportunity to relax and enjoy each other's company.
- Inclusion is the cornerstone of community. We value diversity in its many forms, because we all have something to learn from each other.
- Activities should be driven by the needs and wants of the families. Creating Landscapes for Families is about ownership rather than membership.
- Grassroots organization is a powerful tool for change.
- Gathering spaces— indoors or out— can help us survive difficult times and bring us the deepest and simplest joys...

OUR HISTORY

Creating Landscapes for Families began in the fall of 2009, when local families became interested in extending the summer Creating Landscapes program into the school year. During the 2009-2010 school year, activities followed the format of the summer program, but this changed as the families began to take ownership of the organization.

In the summer of 2010, Creating Landscapes for Families started the Community Garden at Ackerman Farm under the leadership of families and community members.

In the fall of 2011, the program moved to the Unitarian Universalist Church in Meadville and expanded its afterschool activities while designing a YEAR-ROUND program. Summer in the Community Garden—School Year in the Community at the UU church.

As Creating Landscapes for Families moves into the 2013-2014 school year, we look forward to continuing our growth by partnering with even more families—please join us! All are welcome!
